This stunning modern farmhouse is traditional without being fussy; classic without feeling stuffed and comfortable in a way that makes you want to put your feet up and stay a while. It is the perfect mix of tactile and tangible with luxury touches scattered throughout. Traditional, creamy white woodwork, including pine clad box-beam ceilings and board-n-batten wainscoting, is partnered with a soft, subdued paint palette, shiplap walls and natural textures. Incredible unlacquered brass fixtures and stunning lighting were hand selected for each room and are the jewels that set this home apart. Discover period details like a huge wall-mount, cast-iron laundry sink, a swoon-worthy black-and-white kitchen and a classic master bath that you'll wish you could click and add to your Pinterest board.
